MRS. OSWALD SAYS SON IS SCAPEGOAT

Thinks He Was C.I.A. Agent 'Set Up to Take Blame'

By WILLIAM M. BLAIR Special to The New York Times

CPYRGHT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 The mother of Lee H. Oswald said today that she believed he son was a United States "in telligence agent" and that he was "set up to take the blame" for the assassination of President Kennedy.

She made the statement to newsmen as she finished three days of testimony before the Presidential commission investigating the assassination. Sho said she had told the same said she had told the same thing to the commission.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, commission chairman, said the 56-year-old mother had presented no evidence to support her belief that Oswald was an agent for the Central Intelligence Agency.

"She offered no evidence to that effect except her story and bat effect except her story and correspondence that she pre-sented, taken together, leads her to the speculation—I use he word speculation, as she ised it—that he was an agent."

"She has not given us any acts that would change the acts that would change the picture as we know it up to the lime she testified," Mr. Warren said. "She did not profess to give us any facts that would prove anything in connection with the assassination.

"She did contend that the orrespondence [with Oswald] hat she presented and her own estimony taken together in heir entirety present a much different picture than has been iven to the public up to the resent time. She says she tradicted before the commission elieves her son is innocent, the testimony of her daughterhat it is possible that he comin-law, Mrs. Marina Oswald, le could have committed it."

The plump, matroniy appearing woman, when asked for a privilege of making her own statement, moved readily to statements and I have the same privilege of making her own statements same privilege of making mine."

"Lee Harvey Oswald was not readily to statements." ricrophones set before cam-family same privilege of making eras in the lobby of the Veter-ans of Foreign Wars Building "Lee Harvey Oswald was not on Capitol Hill, where the com-the killer of President Kennedy tatement until today on the in most references to her dvice of her counsel, John F. son, Mrs. Oswald used the boyle, who was appointed by present tense, such as "I bene District of Columbia Bar leve Lee is an intelligence speciately at her request ociptoin at her request

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT

'I still believe my son, Lee Harvey Oswald, is innocent, she began. She vowed she would "continue public appearances and an investigation" to clear her son "if it takes another year to do so."

The assassin, she contended, "is still at large."

"I realize that as a human being he [Oswald] could be guilty," she said, but added that she had given the commission "evidence" that her son was innocent. Some of the documents she said she gave the commission were of a nature "the commission did not know before."

She said she and Mark Lane, the New York lawyer whom she has said she retained without fee to defend her son, had "investigators all over." She also said that she had received 1,500 letters with information on the assassination, including some from foreigners, and that she would not pass on "any tips" to the commission.

'Set Up to Take the Blame' rhitted the crime but that it who told the panel she believed also is possible that other peo-rle could have committed it." who told the panel she believed her husband had shot the President, the mother asserted:

nission met.

She had declined to make a plame," she went on.

"My son was a scrapgoat,

the said at one point.
"Who can prove he is not a call." she said. "He sn't going to say he's a C.I.A. gent, and the Government sn't going to say he is. Lee, leing an agent, would not say o to anyone." Chief Justice Warren said hotographs that Mrs. Oswald ad sought to present to the ommission were of her family n "early life" and had no bear-She ing on the assassination. She eived vanted the commission to acept them on the condition that he panel "not show them to anyone." Mr. Warren said, but the commission would not acne commission would not acept this limitation. She then aid she would not introduce them because "they were valuable to her for use in articles or books that she might rite."

Mr. Warren indicated that ther witnesses would be called on. But he said this would epend on when "certain witesses can get here and when certain members of the commison can be here."

Asked about a report that a juitor in the Texas Book Depository Building in Dallas would be the next witness, Mr. Warren said: "Maybe they know, I don't know."

Oswald is alleged to have fred the shots that killed President Kennedy from a sixth-foor window of the building.

CPYRGHT